

Pyramid Model:

Practices to Prevent Challenging Behavior & Promote Positive Social Skills

This training will provide ways to promote the social and emotional development of young children as a means of preventing challenging behaviors. This training will help you:

- understand the role of relationships with and between children as well as families
- set up the environment to support children's social and emotional competency and prevent challenging behaviors
- determine important social and emotional skills to intentionally teach all children

The Pyramid Model was developed by the Center for Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL)
