ABOUT KEIKO

Keiko Friar grew up on the island of O'ahu. However, she attended college in Fort Collins, Colorado, where they have remained ever since!

Keiko has a background in ethnic studies, women's studies and Spanish, with experience in specifically Asian Pacific Island and Desi American, LGBTQ+ and low income population matters. She prides herself on her commitment to ethical, culturally integrated, and accountable work, relationships and continual personal growth.

In her free time, she enjoys bicycling, reading poetry, cosplaying, writing music and painting.
