ABOUT HEATHER

Heather joined the Early Childhood Council staff in April of 2014 as part of the Early Childhood Coaching team. Prior to this, she spent 15 years working in the Early Childhood field as a center director, an Infant Nursery Supervisor, a preschool teacher, school-age teacher, a substitute teacher, and a contract trainer for the Council. Heather received her Bachelors of Science degree in Human Development and Family Studies from Colorado State University. This experience set her on a path as a lifelong learner in search of experiences and opportunities that support her passion for young children, their families and teachers. As an Infant Toddler Specialist, Heather works closely with professionals who care for and educate the little humans in our community.

Through her own personal professional development, Heather discovered that she also has a love and passion for educating adult learners. Part of her work includes creating and facilitating trainings for early childhood educators. She wants to continue learning so she can continue sharing.

In her spare time, Heather loves to spend time with her husband Jason, and her children Anelise and Xander, and their dog Tesla. They spend time playing outside, visiting local sites, watching movies, going for walks and taking trips to the mountains. As a Colorado Native, Heather wants to eventually retire to the beautiful mountains and spend her days holding and rocking babies.
